

ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE PRIZE DAY

HEADMASTER'S VIEWS ON MATRICULATION AND SCHOOL LEAVING CERTIFICATES

BISHOP'S APPEAL TO THE STUDENTS

The Right Rev. Bishop H. Valtorta gave away the awards at St. Joseph's College Prize day, which was held at the College on Saturday.

Bishop Valtorta expressed the earnest hope that the College would continue to maintain its high reputation among the Colleges of the Far East. "But this in a great measure depends on the student body composing it."

Brother Matthias, in his report said that numbers had been reduced by nearly 100, and "we adhere strictly to the requirements of the Education Code, regarding the age limits for Classes 7 and 8. Greater efficiency called for these restrictions. Of 40 candidates for Matriculation and Senior local, 25 passed."

REVIEW OF THE YEAR

SCHOOL REPORT

The Report, drawn up and Read by Bro. Matthias stated:—

The average enrollment during the Scholastic year ending December 31st 1932, was 600, the average daily attendance 588, giving a percentage attendance of 98%. We reduced our numbers by nearly a hundred on the preceding year. Boys are now admitted only with difficulty into the R. M. and Upper Classes and we adhere strictly to the requirements of the Education Code regarding the age limit for Classes 7 and 8. Greater efficiency in the class room calls for these restrictions in the matter of admissions.

Inspector's Report.

Mr. Sutherland spent three days in examining the various classes. In his report he says, "During my inspection I spent about half an hour in each of the 19 classes and found the work very satisfactory. All written work was good and carefully corrected but composition in some classes showed much similarity. More oral composition should be taught. Reading is good but it still lacks expression. Choral singing has improved in the Chinese Divisions, but their pronunciation requires constant attention. Mathematics are well taught. The school is very efficient."

Examinations.

The examination papers as set by the Hong Kong University are quite original and searching and thus to a great extent preclude cramming and mechanical work. To pass the Matriculation it is necessary for a student to have a thorough foundation in the various subjects he intends to offer, especially in mathematics. Nevertheless it is a very popular examination and I fear the School Leaving Certificate will not adequately replace it in the eyes of those concerned viz. parents, pupils, employers. A similar attitude seems to prevail in parts of England. In this connection I will quote a passage from the report of Brother Francis, Headmaster of West Park, St. Helens: "The craze for a Matriculation Certificate is such that the value of a School Certificate is either lost sight of or completely ignored. A Matriculation Certificate is regarded by candidates as a superior

CONSUMPTION HAS BEEN CURED.

A REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION HAS BEEN FOUND.

DR. P. TONKERMAN, DISCOVERER OF THE NEW REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION.

Marvellous as it may seem after centuries of failure, a remedy has been discovered that has cured the deadly Consumption even in the advanced stages of the disease. No one will longer doubt that Consumption can be cured after reading the proof of hundreds of cases cured by this wonderful discovery—some after change of climate and all other remedies tried had failed, and the cases had been pronounced hopeless of cure. This new remedy has also proved itself effective and speedy in curing Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma and other serious throat and lung troubles. In order that all in need of this wonderful product of Science may learn of its efficacy for themselves, a Company has been formed to distribute it to the World, and full particulars can be obtained by writing the Dr. P. TONKERMAN Co., Ltd. (Dept. C. 351), 119/120, Fleet St., London, E.C.4, and mentioning this paper.

ABSOLUTELY FREE.

Do not wait if you have any of the symptoms of Consumption, if you have Chronic Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma or any Throat or Lung Trouble, write today and benefit yourself before it is too late.

care. The Sodality of the Children of Mary continues in a very flourishing condition; four of its members are now preparing at Penang for a life long service in the cause of Christian education.

Benefactors.

It is with deep regret that I have to record the death of Mr. Woo Hay Tong. For years he proved a generous benefactor in paying the school fees of 30 poor boys besides donating other large sums in scholarships. To his bereaved wife and children we extend our deepest sympathy.

I thank the S. V. P. and the Hong Kong Benevolent Society for having helped us not only in paying part of the school fees of poor boys but also for supplying deserving cases with school requisites and tiffin.

Conclusion.

There now remains the pleasant duty of cordially thanking all who have helped the school during the year: your Excellency for your counsel and the great interest you take in all that pertains to the welfare of the College; the Reverend Clergy for their devoted ministrations, especially the Reverend Father Prizzi our Chaplain who whether in rain or sunshine was unfailingly punctual and ever ready to inconvenience himself to attend to the spiritual interests of the children of the College; the Reverend Father Byrne for having conducted the boys' Retreat; and the Inspectors of Schools for their courteous, sympathetic and constructive criticisms.

I congratulate the Prize Winners, and, for the consolation of the less favoured I quote Addison: "Tis not in mortals to command success; But we'll do more—we'll deserve success."

THE BISHOP'S APPEAL

His Excellency, Bishop Valtorta, addressing the boys, expressed the earnest hope that the College would continue to maintain its high reputation among the colleges of the Far East. But this in a great measure depended on the student body composing it. If they were to accomplish their full duty in regard to the College, they should take a keen interest in all its varied activities, intellectual, athletic and moral.

LIBERAL OPINION IN JAPAN

WILL BARON SHIDEHARA'S POLICY BE RESUMED?

REALISATION OF PRESENT DANGERS

Tokyo, Feb. 14.—A year ago in a dispatch from Shanghai the United Press said that in Japan there was a strong bloc of liberal opinion looking upon the Shanghai expedition with very little enthusiasm.

The dispatch, written during the height of the fighting around Shanghai went on to say that "the so called intellectuals of Japan opposed war on the ground that world opinion would condemn and isolate Japan. Also, in this group, has been sustained the theory that Baron Kijuro Shidehara (the former foreign minister) is right in his contention that cooperation between Chinese and Japanese is the cornerstone of any solution of their problem."

Proved Correct.

The dispatch, during the year that has elapsed since it was written, has been proved largely correct in its analysis of the Shanghai "war" and events now taking place tend to prove it was correct in the assumption that liberal Japanese opinion again would reassert itself and challenge the adventures of the military extremists on the Asiatic mainland.

The debate in the current session of the Diet reveals that some progress has been made towards a solution of the large issue and, if the constructive forces of Japanese statesmanship are able to continue the advances they have been making, it seems reasonable to assume the second part of the United Press forecast of a year ago may be borne out and a measure of the conciliatory diplomacy with regard to China which Baron Shidehara always favoured, restored.

In his speech on foreign affairs before the two houses of parliament on January 21 Count Yasuya Uchida, the present foreign minister, made some tentative declarations indicating his idea of a proper policy with regard to the Asiatic mainland and no doubt got the reaction he expected when he faced interpellations a few days later.

Makes Demands.

The Seiyukai spokesmen demanded bluntly to know who is running Japanese foreign policy, Count Uchida, or General Sadao Araki, minister of war, and demanded by inference that the war minister explain why the Army was not keeping its pledges with regard to Manchukuo, which the Japanese people had been promised was to be made a "heaven on earth."

The Seiyukai said their investigators in Manchuria found plenty of evidence of Japanese military power in Manchukuo but very little trace of Japanese benevolence. They demanded the army abandon its conception that it is "almighty" in all phases of Japanese life and allow the government to consolidate national opinion behind a sane and workable Asiatic policy.

They deplored the fact the interference of the Army makes it impossible for the government to make any real steps towards coming to an understanding with China on a basis of mutual friendship and cooperation.

Open Opinion.

Count Uchida and General Araki answered the interpellations in half-hearted fashion and their replies were not the important thing. What was important was that liberal opinion felt conditions in Japan now have reached a point where it dares openly to express its sentiments on the floor of parliament.

The problems brought out in the interpellations have been uppermost in the minds of hundreds of sensible Japanese for months but until this year few of these people dared to voice their views because of the danger of being charged with defeatism. Now, that the atmosphere is becoming clearer, however, increasing criticism of the military may be expected and increasing efforts to crystallize public opinion in support of sound national policy.

Both General Araki and Count Uchida impress foreign observers here as astute and sensible and it is believed, deep in their hearts, they have considerable sympathy for the demand of others for a return to normal conditions in this country. The right of free speech and free criticism and a sensible rather than a jingoistic consideration (Continued on Page 4.)

WAR UNITS OF AUSTRALIA AND CANADA

FORM PEACE-TIME ALLIANCE

Toronto, Canada.—Two historic corps of fighting men have sealed in the alliance of common memories their association on the battle fields of France. In the time-honoured principles of interregimental alliances of veterans' organizations the 2nd Canadian Infantry Battalion Association and the 2nd Battalion (Australian Imperial Forces) Association have had a most friendly interchange of messages and have become affiliated.

The initiative was taken by Col. L. T. McLaughlin, C.M.G., D.S.O., of Downsview, Ontario, former Commanding Officer of the 2nd Canadian Battalion, and his suggestion that an alliance be formed was accepted promptly and cordially by Lieut. Col. E. E. Herrod, C.M.G., D.S.O., V.D., of the Australian unit, who expressed pleasure and appreciation of the thought of Col. McLaughlin that "the principle of inter-regimental alliances followed by units of the active forces throughout the Empire might be pursued further, so as to embrace those associations representing the war-time battalions of the Canadian and Australian corps."

The service of the 2nd Canadians was confined to the Western front where it fought in every action participated in by troops from this Dominion from April, 1915, to the armistice. That of the Australian battalion was divided between Gallipoli and France, its record in both areas being a most distinguished one.

NEW RULES FOR
PENITENTIARIESFOLLOW INVESTIGATION INTO DISORDERS.Ottawa, Canada.—Following investigations into riots in two Canadian penitentiaries new rules of conduct have gone into effect which alter somewhat the conditions under which live 4,200 convicts in these institutions. At the same time there has been a sharp tightening-up in discipline and some staff readjustments.Relatives may visit prisoners once each month instead of once in two months as in the past. Sunday visits are forbidden except in cases of illness. Two letters may be written each month by a prisoner, and if the visiting privilege is not exercised he may write another letter. More leeway for replies to letters is provided.Pipes, tobacco in all forms, and cigarette papers will be provided on a ration basis and new facilities for smoking are given. Stronger electric lights in dormitories and cells permit more comfortable reading. The rule of silence has been amended to permit well-behaved prisoners to converse during prescribed periods.Each prisoner on entering a penitentiary has his hair closely cropped.
Subsequent trimmings may be "in the military or short-hair" style.
More recreation under certain conditions is provided. On the advice of a physician prisoners may be exempted from church service.Corporal punishment may be inflicted on a convict only after he has been found guilty on evidence taken under oath and the punishment approved by the Dominion Superintendent of Penitentiaries. Flogging or strapping within these safeguards may be imposed for crimes of violence, acts of gross misconduct and insubordination, wilful destruction of prison property, attempts at escape, and so on.LIBERAL OPINION

tion of the nation's future programme. Such is the delicacy of the national position, however, because of the reverses Japan seems certain to suffer at Geneva and the still smouldering flames of a wild and irresponsible nationalism, that both the foreign and the war ministers necessarily must proceed with the greatest caution. If the present trend continues, however, the members of the present government or their successors ought to make headway towards the real direct negotiations with China; in a sane atmosphere, during the present year. There probably will be false starts and many mis-steps but an eventual return to the more nearly satisfactory state of Sino-Japanese relations which prevailed in the days when Baron Shidehara was foreign minister may be possible.
A section of opinion here feelsRussian influence may prove the greatest stumbling block and if Moscow does appear to foster anti-Japanism in China, they foresee the possibility of the gravest complications.—The United

Of the three matches in the Second Division, two were decided, Kowloon beating the R.E. & S. by nine wickets, and the Club de Recreio losing to the R.E. & S. by 30 runs. The other match, between the University and Craigengower ended in a draw.

The Electric Force—75 Years Ago. Extracts from the newspapers of long ago seldom lack interest for they make the past live again. Here is one from the London Daily Telegraph of Jan. 3rd, 1858:

On Thursday, Professor Faraday delivered a lecture to juveniles in the hall of the Royal Institution, the subject being "The characters of the electric force." The Prince of Wales took the chair, and the company was very large and distinguished.

Professor Faraday dissected the appearances of the electric force, and by means of familiar illustrations with paper boxes, paper rings, wool, &c., the two-fold character of this wonderful power was clearly shown—attractive and repulsive electricity.

MESSRS. G.A. HARRISMAN'S REPORT

AN ACTIVE MARKET

The market has been very active during the past week but rates have suffered a further decline, especially in the speculative section which was sensitive to the slightest change in the political situation at Geneva. Cementa were done in large quantities down to $7.50. Hotels cum dividend of 40 cents dropped to $7.50. Lights $11.00. Providents $4.40 and Ropes $11.00. Investment section suffered only slightly. Trans being steady around $20.50 cum dividend. Lands $7 1/2. Electric $75.00. Wharves $14 1/2. The sterling sections however remained firm with Banks wanted at $1.770, and Unions at $370. The tone of the market at the close is quiet.

Banks.—Hong Kong Banks remained firm with buyers at $1.770 sales having been effected at this rate. Bank of East Asia were quiet with shares offering at $108.00.

Insurances.—Canton Fires were transacted at $1.300. Unions changed hands at $370.75. China Underwriters revived to a buying rate of $2.35.

Shipping.—Douglases and Hong Kong Steamboats continued in demand at $30.00, and $22.00 respectively.

Docks, Wharves and Godowns.—Wharves could be placed at $143.00. Providents (old) continued neglected with sellers at $4.40.

Hotels and Real Estate.—Hotels (old) suffered a decline on account of the decrease of dividend, transactions having been done at as low as $7.30, but at the close the market improved a little with buyers at $7.50. Hong Kong Lands were dealt in at $7 1/2. Hong Kong Realities were quiet with sellers at $7.50.

Cotton Mills.—Ewos eased off slightly and were dealt in at $12.13/70.

Public Utilities.—Hong Kong Tramways changed hands at $20.50 ex the dividend of 70 cents just paid. Star Forties remained firm with buyers at $30.00. China Lights (old) suffered a set-back and could be obtained at $11.20. Hong Kong Electric were sold at $76.00. Telephones (new) showed some weakness and were put through at $26.75/27.00.

Miscellaneous—Cementa (comb.) opened distinctly weak at $9.80 and were gradually sold down to $7.50 closing a shade better $7.70 buyers. Hong Kong Ropes were on offer at $11.00 without attracting buyers. Dairy Farms remained steadily at $29.10 at which rate some small parcels changed hands. Sinceros could fetch buyers at $15 1/2. Constructions (old) were obtainable at $4.25.

THE PIECE GOODS MARKET

THINGS A BIT EASIER.

The Chamber of Commerce fortnightly report states:—
Cotton Piece Goods and Fancy Cotton Goods.

The following reports have been received:—

The demand for Grey and White Shirtings continues to be fairly good and sales of "spot" cargo have been satisfactory. Clearances during the first two weeks of this month were good but have since shown a tendency to decline. Local prices for Spring Fancies, although still satisfactory, are not so firm but the decline in exchange is likely to prevent any great change. Manchester quotations are a bit easier but there is not much new business passing as dealers are not keen to operate at the present lower level of exchange.

The latest Cotton prices to hand are those of the 17th inst:—
American Mid. "Spot" 4.95d.
Egyptian Sels. "Spot" 7.03d.

KANSU EARTH-QUAKE KILLS 70,000

SCORES OF TOWNS DESTROYED

Peiping, Feb. 13.—Foreigners reaching Peiping by canal from Kansu province, several hundred miles into the interior, reported to-day that 70,000 persons were estimated to have been killed there by an earthquake occurring December 26.

Literally scores of towns and villages in the mountainous districts were destroyed, while the population was left destitute.

The headquarters of the China Famine Relief received official but incomplete advice describing the earthquake, but in much smaller proportions.

There figure reported 230 known killed, approximately 300 fatally injured and other seriously injured. The Famine Relief office admitted these reports were not final.

Travellers said that towns and villages in a district of a radius of 100 miles around Kiatui were destroyed, wrecking everything over a wide plateau.

The official reports concerned only Kiatui and immediate vicinity.

There was no doubt but that there was a severe earthquake, the only question being whether the loss reached such appalling proportions as indicated in the latest reports.

If the latest reports are verified the quake will rank as one of the major disturbances on record. An earthquake centre in Pingliang, Kansu, in 1920, claimed a tremendous loss of life, estimated from several hundred thousand to a million.

To this day no means of communication except by caravan exists with the earthquake area. Kansu is almost wholly mountainous, and is located between Szechuan and Inner Mongolia.

RUGGER

CLUB BEAT THE BANK

The Club defeated the Bank at Rugby on Saturday at Happy Valley ground by nine points (2 tries and a penalty) to nil. It was a keenly contested game and the Bank's outsiders gave a fine display by defensive work.

There was a great duel between L. G. Robertson and Dr. J. A. R. Selby, the Club captain. Robertson played a most determined game and marked his formidable opponent with grim pertinacity. He was well supported by W. M. Turner the stand-off half.

When half-time came the Club led by 8 points, Ferguson having scored a try which was not converted, and McElliott having successfully added a penalty goal.

In the second half Ferguson again scored an unconverted try.

TRADE COMMISSION FOR STRAITS SETTLEMENTS TO EXAMINE "REASONS FOR GAINS AND LOSSES"

Singapore, Feb. 9.—H.E. the Governor (Sir Cecil Clementi) has decided to appoint a Commission: "To inquire into the trade of the Colony, the directions in which it has gained or lost, and the reasons for these gains or losses, and its future potentialities."

This decision was revealed at a committee meeting of the Straits Settlements (Singapore) Association on Tuesday night.

In response to the Government's invitation to the Association, to nominate a member to serve on the Commission, it was decided to submit the name of Mr. J. G. Campbell.

Informing the meeting that the report of the sub-committee on the Motor Vehicles Ordinance, 1933, was not yet completed.

Customs Union.
 Following the request made to the Government that a full and authoritative statement, setting out how the Colony, the Federated and Unfederated Malay States are affected by the Ottawa agreement, be published, a further letter to the Government was approved suggesting that the statement to be published should be one based on a despatch which had not reached H.E. the Governor when he referred to the matter in the Legislative Council on Oct. 19, 1932.

decline in exchange is proving a serious obstacle. In view of the carry-over from last season, new orders this year are again likely to be below normal as the dealers are adopting a cautious attitude.

RECREIO'S GREAT SOCCER VICTORY IN 1ST LEAGUE

VOLUNTEERS RUN UP BIG SCORE AGAINST KOWLOON CRICKET CLUB

ST. ANDREW'S LOSE TO RADIO IN MAMAK TOURNAMENT

Kowloon Clubs had rather up and down fortunes over the week-end. The greatest triumph was Recreio's brilliant defeat, in the First Division of the Soccer League, of the powerful Lincolns—a 3-2 victory which caused a good deal of surprise and upon which Recreio is to be warmly congratulated.

Kowloon F.C. however, lost to the Club by the only goal scored—the victory being largely due to Rodger's great display in goal for the Club. Kowloon Reserves also lost, being beaten 6-4 by the S.W. Borderers.

In the two-day match Volunteers v. Kowloon C.C., begun yesterday, the former ran up the big score of 314, S. V. Gittins making 118. K.C.C. replied rather poorly with a total just over half that of their opponents for 5 wickets. The game is being continued to-day.

The Club de Recreio entertained the China Light and Power on their own ground, the latter winning by ten runs—72 to 62. Kowloon C.C. 2nd XI beat the R.A.S.C. by nine wickets on Saturday, but Recreio lost to R.E. and S. by 80 runs.

At Hockey the St. Andrew's team lost to Radio Sports Club by two goals to nil in the Mamak League. Club de Recreio Ladies beat Central British Association ladies by two goals to nil.

Full details of the matches follow.

Read this letter from Prof. Mauricio about benefit of BRACO RYE BREAD

Dear Sir,

I have tried your "Rye Bread" supplied to me for a fortnight and must thank you for having given me the opportunity of giving your product a trial.

I must admit it is the first time I have eaten your bread and as a result I have increased about 1 lb. in weight and have felt exceedingly strong and fit for the past few weeks. The change for the better was undoubtedly well-nigh instantaneous and by trying your product I have accumulated a lot of energy that I shall be glad to have given you.

I have recommended your bread to several of my friends and friends and to those who are anxious about their health and strength I very strongly recommend "Rye Bread."

In consequence to other breads of bread that I have tried, I find "Rye Bread" of very high quality. It is very digestible and its taste is agreeable.

It contains all the best-building elements that are required for a strong and sound body. It is a wonderful substitute for other foods because it contains the vitamins essential for nourishment and the health giving properties of wheat. Besides containing all the health giving properties it is also a strength producer for building up muscles and tissues.

Being thoroughly satisfied with your product, I strongly support the contention of the medical authorities that for the average healthy man, BRACO RYE BREAD, rather than any other food, is sufficient to keep a man in health.

Thanking you once again, I remain, Sir, Yours faithfully,

Mauricio

WHY WE ARE IN KOWLOON.

Last Spring we decided that the popular shopping district of the future will be in Kowloon. We looked about and took space which we considered to be ideal for the Jade Tree needs. Now we have decided that it is a mistake to divide stocks, so we have taken additional space in Kowloon. We have light air, space to show our merchandise properly—and best of all an overhead that will admit of our selling the well-known high quality Jade Tree merchandise at the low prices at which we want to sell it.

Everyone arrives in Kowloon. Everyone leaves from Kowloon. An increasing number of people are coming to live in Kowloon. Hong Kong people attend various social functions here, they play golf at Fanling. We think they will also shop in Kowloon—when they know the many advantages of it.

We invite them all to come in and see our new premises. Drop in for cup of tea on the way home from golf—or work—and leisurely do the shopping that would otherwise be a task to carry over for another day.

THE RECREIO'S GREAT WIN

K. F. C. lose to the Club

FIRST DIVISION

CLUB KOWLOON.

Rodger, the Interport and Club goalkeeper played a sterling game for his side in the match against the Kowloon F.O. on the latter's ground, and was mainly responsible for their win. He not only saved a penalty taken by Watkins, but played a great game, not making a single mistake from first to last. The Club were very lucky to win, for Kowloon had a very fair share of the game, and had Watkins converted the penalty, the result might have been different.

In the first half play was very even and both sides failed to score. The only goal—and the deciding factor of the game—was scored by Williams late in the second half.

Club:—Rodger; Martin, S. Strange; Skinner, Hynea, A. Duncan, G. Duncan, Watson, Williams, E. Strange and Fowler.

Kowloon:—Cook; Walker, Eastman, Watkins, McKelvie, Bliss; Hill, Whitfield, Neloma, Wood and Bickford.

RECREIO v. LINCOLNS.

The Club de Recreio surprised even their most optimistic supporters on Chatham Road ground where they bested the Lincolns by three goals to two.

A brilliant second-half recovery was mainly responsible for their victory, as at one stage they were two goals down, and the score stood at 2-1 down when the interval arrived. By their win the Portuguese Club collected their first League points since the season started. The soldiers were the first to open the scoring, through Malpas and this was later increased by Ridley. Before the interval F. Santos reduced the deficit for the Portuguese.

After the interval, the Portuguese staged a splendid recovery and not only equalised but went on to register one of the most sensational wins of the season. Gomes and J. Santos, scored their goals.

Sgt. Caswell lined out the following teams.
Lincolns:—Heath; Turner, Ash; Dudley, Cork, Bett; Baldry; Harding, Malpas, Ridley and Hocquard.
Recreio:—Marques; Sil Netto, Gutierrez; McIntosh, Figueiredo, Oliveira; Laurel, Gomes, F. Santos, J. Santos and Ribeiro.

BORDERERS v. KOWLOON.

Played with only ten men Kowloon went down to the Borderers by six goals to four in their match at Sookunpo. Despite this handicap, the men from the Mainland put up a very good fight and it was not till almost the end of the game that the result was decided. Fortey (3), Mathias and Harbly scores for the soldiers, and Farthy (2) and Phillips (2) replied for Kowloon.

HOCKEY

ST. ANDREW'S LOSE TO RADIO

On the Marina ground, Kowloon, yesterday the St. Andrew's hockey team lost to the Radio Sports Club by two goals to nil after a very fast and exciting game. The play throughout was very even both sides attacking in succession.

At the beginning of the first half the St. Andrew's team took charge of the play and although repeated attacks were made, the forwards lacked the final touches to convert many good chances. The Radio forwards also made several fast attacks but Wong in goal was sound. Towards the end of the first half the Radio drew first blood with a goal by Gurbachan Singh who netted on receipt of a neat pass from Awar Singh.

The second half play resumed even more strongly both sides sharing the play. The St. Andrew's forwards, however, were not supported by their two wings and although Mackay and Fincher worked hard the score remained against them. S. McRider was penalised just before the close of play for a foul in his own penalty area and in a penalty bully-off, stood no chance against Awar Singh who scored the second goal.

This victory has placed the Radio Sports Club level with the In-cognitos and re-opens their chances of winning the Mamak league.

The Teams:

Radio:—Man Singh, Parduman Singh, J. S. Grewal, Jaggeet Singh, M. H. Hassan, Mohinder Singh, Surjit Singh, Gurbachan Singh (Captain), Awar Singh, Kalwant Singh and Attar Singh.
St. Andrew's:—R. H. Wong, E. P. H. White, R. Valdivia, A. B. Hamson, B. Guest, S. McNider, R. Carrol, N. A. E. Mackay, E. F. Fincher, F. Wong and M. Weill.

PRETTY WEDDING AT ST. ANDREW'S

MR. G. H. MILES AND MISS DOROTHY SMITH

A very pretty wedding took place at St. Andrew's Church, Kowloon, on Saturday, between Mr. George Henry Miles of the Sanitary Department, and Miss Dorothy Lilian Rose Smith, eldest daughter of Mr. James Smith of the Kowloon-Canton Railway and of Mrs. Smith.

The Rev. W. Walton Rogers, M.A., officiated at the ceremony.

The bride who looked very charming in a dress of white satin with silk tulle veil and orange blossom, and who carried a bouquet of pink roses, and apparagus fern, was given away by her father. Her bridesmaids were the Misses Marie Smith (sister), O. and S. Daisiel and H. Reed, who wore dresses of peach crepe-de-chino and carried bouquets of peach gladioli.

The bride's mother was attired in a dress of old gold lace made by Madam Leite.

Mr. T. McInnes was the "best man."

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Peninsula Hotel which was largely attended, and the happy couple later left for Macao for their honeymoon, the bride's going-away dress was of blue cloth, with hat and coat to match.

The bride's gift to the groom was a pair of gold cuff links and studs, while the groom's gift to the bride was a gold pendant. The groom's gift to each bridesmaid was a crystal necklace.

BRITISH INDUSTRIES FAIR

The annual British Industries Fair, which opens to-day in London and Birmingham, has been aptly phrased the National "Shop Window." In it are shown the best goods that the country produces, and one expert has declared that this year's will be the brightest shop window Great Britain has ever displayed to the world. It is the first Fair the country has held since it generally adopted a system of protective tariffs, and the effect of the tariffs on the Fair will be advantageous. Many new and re-introduced industries will exhibit their products; they expect the Fair to help them in their first real bid for world markets; and they, as well as other industries represented, are hopeful that it will mark the beginning of a big "trade push."

The textile section is particularly optimistic. It has developed what is practically a new industry, producing furnishing fabrics. At the last Fair this industry scarcely existed. Its productive capacity was small and it could not undertake orders of any consequence. Since then it has become firmly established in Scotland, Lancashire, Yorkshire, and Wales; and it is capturing solid markets for Jacquard materials, which are woven from yarns dyed in coloured patches. This year it asked for five halls for its exhibits, but such was the general demand for space that it had to be satisfied with two. Silk and woollen hosiery manufacturers are in an equally good position, and a number of firms are exhibiting spectacular displays of silk stockings which equal or better the best products of their foreign rivals.

The officials who have had to do with the entry forms and the staging of the exhibits declared that more new ideas will be revealed this year than at any previous Fair. Manufacturers and merchants have now thoroughly turned themselves to the need of presenting a new ground in every direction, and in every industry they have assiduously adapted and improved their machinery and products in every way. This applies to practically every section, from small toys to engineering plant. The chemical section is unusually interesting. Its exhibits range from a substance which claims to prevent decay in teeth, to oil produced from coal by a perfected hydrogenation process.

The furniture trade, which has languished for years, has been rejuvenated by tariffs, and this year the Furniture Section will be the largest in London, with the exception of the Textile Section, which covers a number of industries. One or two branches of furniture making, which seemed dead, such as "Italian Walnut" furniture are now very active again, and some beautiful exhibits will be staged. The watch and clock section will give an unusually good display, including watch cases to fit any type of watch. Incidentally, Great Britain has now a greater output of watch cases than any other country in Europe.

For lovers of books there is a particularly pleasing exhibit to demonstrate the qualities of a new dye specially produced for bookbinders. It is fadeless. When dirty it can be washed. The makers claim that the substance is imperishable, and they will exhibit a collected edition of the works of Mr. G. BERNARD SHAW in the new binding. In the jewellery section there will be a display of silversware made entirely by hand. The workmen employed in this craft are all free-men of the City of London, and the processes used in the making of these exhibits are those which have been used for centuries.

The Fair will be held in London and Birmingham. Except for the Furniture Section, which, on account of its growth will share with the Textile Section the London "White City," all the light industries will be housed at "Olympia" in London. Between them, Olympia and the White City will accommodate the displays of 1,429 exhibitors, as compared with 1,230 a year ago; and the exhibits will occupy an area of 455,900 square feet, as compared with 393,900 last year. The heavy industries, at Castle Bromwich, Birmingham, demanded more than the 250,000 square feet available indoors this year, and to save others from being crowded out many exhibitors generously agreed to share their allotted space with them. Taking London and Birmingham together the total area occupied by the Fair will be thirty acres, and the frontages of the indoor stands will extend for about twenty miles.

OBITUARY

MR. JAMES H. BACKHOUSE

We regret to announce the death last evening, in the War Memorial Hospital, of Mr. James H. Backhouse.

Mr. Backhouse was one of the oldest residents of the Colony, and the head of the import and export firm which carries his name. He was also prominently associated with Hong Kong Amusements, Ltd., being at one time Chairman of Directors. A keen business man, he took little part in the social life of the Colony, or in public work. He had been ill for a long time and went home on leave about eighteen months ago with Mrs. Backhouse in the hope of a cure. They returned to the Colony in November last, but unfortunately her husband was taken ill again with his old enemy, sprue, shortly after their return.

Mr. J. Harrop acted for Mr. Backhouse in the business during his absence and sickness. Mr. Harrop was due for leave about a month ago but put off his departure on account of Mr. Backhouse's ill-health.

Mr. James H. Backhouse was a man in the early fifties, he leaves a widow and two step children: Mr. Charles Backhouse and Mrs. J. F. Wright.

HOW TO SPOT THE WINNER!

The Fakir's Secret Lore!

STORY OF THE "SLOWEST MILE" IN RACING!

I cannot help adding to the list of "how to spot winners" which appeared in our Saturday's issue, two simple and sometimes effective methods.

The first is the tipster on the course. There are many various forms of tipsters and perhaps one of the most unusual ones was a Fakir who used to function outside the paddock in Calcutta. A high official's wife was using this method and was having a bad day. Before the sixth race she expostulated with the Fakir over the seriousness of the situation. He assured her that this time he would invoke every known and unknown deity in the universe and failure to spot the winner would be impossible. Sitting on the ground he placed a large cloth over himself and proceeded to utter a long dirge. During this the lady, in question, either out of anxiety or curiosity, lifted up the cloth and there our tipster was found reading the tips for the sixth race out of the local newspaper!

In the know.

The other effective method of spotting a winner is to be really "in the know."

At up-country meetings in India selling lotteries used to be held the night before the opening day, and at the end of one of these, a strong discussion took place between two officers as to who owned the better horse. A match was arranged for the next day. It may be mentioned that one was a British officer in a Native cavalry regiment and the other was an officer in a well known Irish Regiment, who had had considerable experience at riding in the £4,180, illegal meetings in Ireland.

Our native cavalry gentleman was not altogether inexperienced and knew practically every blade of grass in the course.

Gold from Canada.

Gold production from all sources in Canada in 1932 amounted to 3,065,168 fine ounces, an output 3.4 per cent. greater than in 1931, 66 per cent. greater than five years ago and 142 per cent. greater than ten years ago.

A Versatile Prince.

Prince William of Sweden, King Gustav's youngest son, has lately been giving further evidence of his versatility. He has already some achievement to his credit as novelist, poet, and lecturer. Now a film is being shown in the Copenhagen cinemas in which he appears in a talkie describing the legends and history surrounding an ancient country house in the wooded hills of the Kolmar district of Central Sweden. Prince William is also the author of the scenario. This is his second film, and he is now at work on a third.

Making It Ourselves.
A group of entirely new products which will be features of the British Industries Fair this year have been shown privately by manufacturers, who now appreciate the need for designing themselves many things which were once the monopoly of the foreigner. In this category might be included a small grand piano which gets away from the conventional shape and at the same time achieves an astonishing tonal quality. There is also a new type of fishing cast made from floss silk. For this we used to depend on Japan, but it is now made for the first time within the Empire. Where the inventive turn of mind seemed most pronounced, however, was in a folding home for motorists. This is a hut which collapses and may be fitted to a luggage carrier. The Fair opens to-day.

Women and Bridge.

Men have said in their haste many hard things about women at bridge. Privately, if not in public, grim destinations for the woman player have been suggested. In Hungary they have passed a law providing one.

The objection to the woman bridge player in Hungary is not that she plays badly, or that she plays pestikently well, but that she plays at all.

This is found to impair the equal right of man to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. The woman, it is a café, and as the fashion is that every woman must play no man now can use his café comfortably.

Hence a law—for in Hungary man still stands on no nonsense from woman—providing prison for her if she plays bridge in public.

As a matter of moral principle or social order, this may be right. But in practice it will work out all wrong. They should have passed a law against playing bridge in private if they really wanted to clear the café.

LOOKING BACK 75 YEARS

To Be Let. From the 1st February next the Roomy Bungalow at the corner of Elgin and Shelley Streets, known as the "Retreat," and at present occupied by Mr. J. A. Barretto. The house stands within a compound, part of which is laid out as a garden, with good offices and a spring of water. Apply to H. D. Margesson—Hong Kong Daily Press, Feb. 20, 1933.

LOOKING BACK 50 YEARS

In the course of his able review of the trade of the Treaty Ports of China during 1851, Mr. E. B. Drew, Statistical Secretary of the Imperial Maritime Customs, refers at some length to the large increase of late years in the import of kerosene oil. The quantity of this import sent into the interior under transit pass increases annually at Ningpo, Chinkiang and Hankow but not at Shanghai. In 1879 the import of kerosene at that port was 2,527,763 gallons against 1,247,825 gallons in 1851.—Hong Kong Daily Press, Feb. 20, 1933.

Looking Back 25 Years.

Before Mr. E. A. Hazeland at the Police Court yesterday, Mr. A. F. B. Livesey, R.M., Assistant

Godfather to 150 Children.

For more than 50 years Mr. George Markham has been clerk and sexton at the village church in Levington, Suffolk.

"During that period I have never missed ringing the bells in Levington church on a Sunday, and for 35 years I have rung the bells at a Nocton church as well," he told a reporter.

"For 75 years I have lived in my cottage. Six different parsons have been in office. I have dug the graves for and buried over 400 people, including my mother, father, and sister. I have been godfather to 150 children."

A Modest Start.

The putting in commission of Germany's first new "pocket" battleship may recall the ironic fact that the starting-point of the former German fleet was provided by a small vessel which the British Government presented to the King of Prussia in 1814. The gift was made during a visit of the Allied Sovereigns to celebrate—rather prematurely—the downfall of Napoleon. The King went down to Portsmouth to see it, and remarked to the Emperor, who had not concealed his chagrin at the superiority of the British fleet to the Russian, "Well, at least you need not be jealous of my navy!"

At a later period the ship of the German navy were largely recruited from our own, and several former British war vessels were in use as training ships at Wilhelmshaven until the outbreak of the war. It was on one of them that the ex-Kaiser learnt seamanship.

Omnibus Books.

Some years ago an enterprising English publisher brought out what has since been called an "Omnibus" book. This is a volume containing about 1,000 pages well printed, on good paper, and at a price generally less than ten shillings. It represents the equivalent of three or perhaps more full-length novels, or a score of plays, or the whole of a writer's short stories or it may be an anthology. "Omnibus" books became an immediate success and have achieved a great popularity in England. They are the best possible value for money, and probably represent the world's cheapest publishing achievements.

There are now dozens of these books—a complete list of them has been published by the National Book Council, London—and each season provides many interesting new ones. Some of the latest to appear are of wonderful value. "Four Fantastic Tales," by Hugh Walpole, contains four of this author's most popular works. A particularly good one is the collection of W. W. Jacobs, humorous short stories—over a thousand pages, priced 7/6d. This volume contains the cream of the author's work.

WHAT WILL THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS DO?

IN THE EVENT OF JAPAN REFUSING COMMITTEE OF 19'S RECOMMENDATIONS

JAPAN MAY BE COMPELLED TO REMAIN MEMBER OF LEAGUE

[THROUGH REUTERS' AGENCY.]

London, February 19.

WHAT the League of Nations will do in the event of Japan refusing to accept the recommendations of the Committee of Nineteen is discussed in leading articles.

The Sunday Times points out much will depend on the attitude of the United States and Russia. If they associate themselves fully with the League Powers, the position of Japan will be most difficult. If she finds herself isolated with no friends in the world she may be impelled to reconsider, perhaps not immediately but when the full impact of the censure is felt, and the difficulties of the campaign in China are better appreciated.

As regards the possibility of fighting in China, the Sunday Times suggests a ban on the export of arms to the Far East and on foreign loans might be salutary, even rapid, on the results, but it is the moral judgment that matters. Britain, anyhow, will not participate in military sanctions.

The Observer also declares there can be no question of the League using force, a resort to which would kill the League. It says the League mismanaged the dispute from the beginning by encouraging China to refuse direct negotiation with Japan. The only wise object for Geneva at present is to eliminate the hatred in the Far East, not to breed it. There must be no anti-Japanese cult.

EXPORTATION OF ARMS CRITICISED

London, Feb. 19.

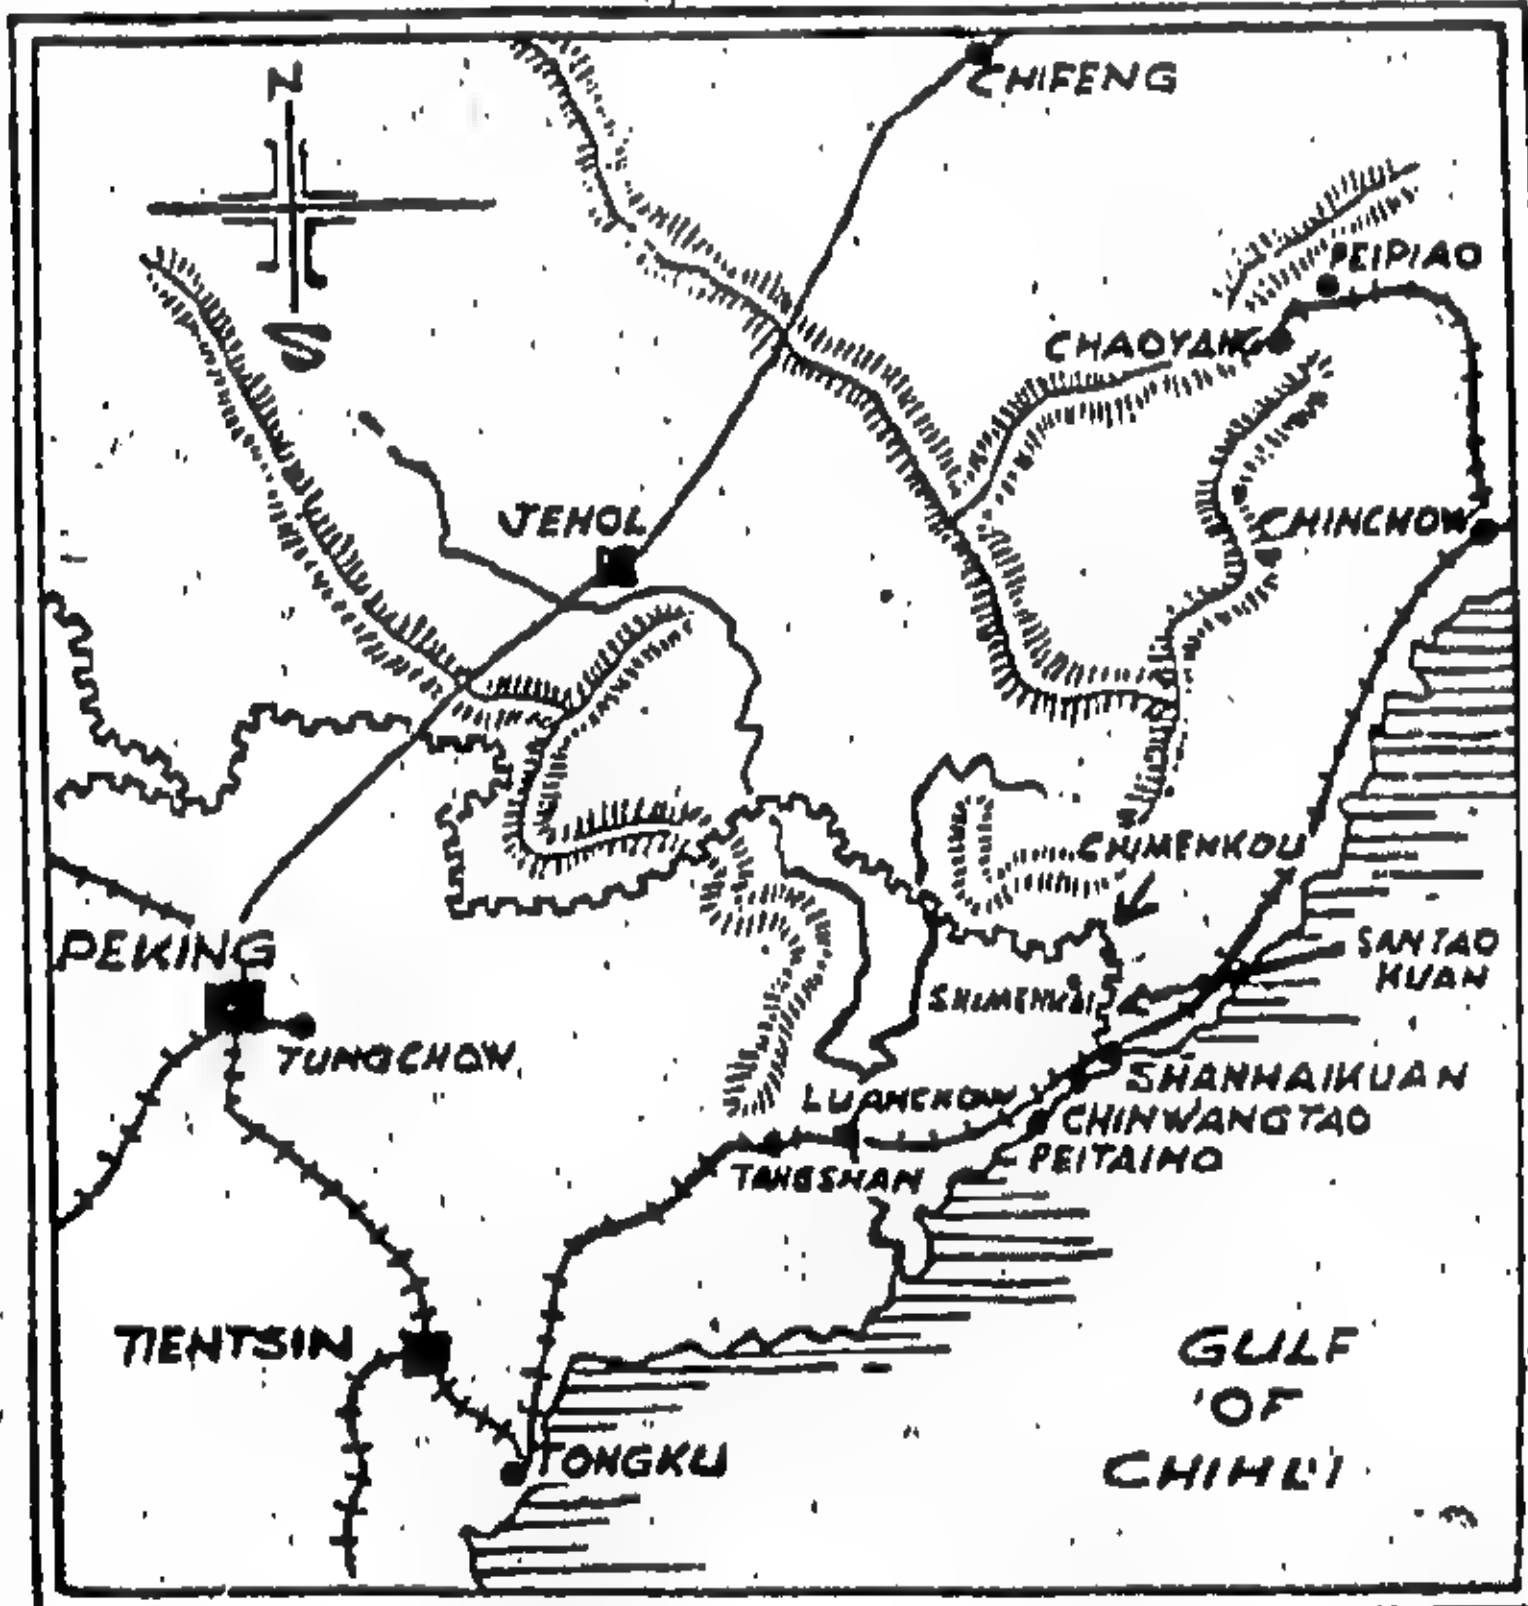

WHERE a dispute between two nations has been the subject of discussion or report by the League of Nations, which is accepted by one of the parties to the dispute and refused by the other, it is incompatible with the obligations of the Covenant and the Kellogg Pact that the nations who are members of the League and/or signatories to the Pact should allow the export of arms to a defaulting country," declares a resolution of the Executive Committee of the League of Nations Union, which urges the Government to seek the assent of Powers who are signatories to the Covenant and/or the Pact to an international agreement to that effect.

Chinese Plans Completed.

Jehol City, Feb. 18. Marshal Chang Hsueh Liang, Mr. T. Y. Soong, Minister of Finance, and General Chang Tso Hsiang are here to "complete plans to resist the continued invasion of the Province by the Japanese forces."

"They have been received with the greatest enthusiasm and the city is besieged in their honour. Civil and military leaders have come from all parts of the Province to greet them."

Mr. Soong, speaking at a mass meeting, reiterated China's determination to resist the Japanese invasion of Jehol.

Map of Country where further Sino-Japanese hostilities are expected.

Ultimatum to Chinese.

[THROUGH REUTERS' AGENCY.]

PEIPING, Feb. 18.

A CHINESE Official Communiqué reports that the Japanese Commander at Tientsin has delivered an ultimatum to the Chinese Commander at Kailu, in the North-East Corner of Jehol, one of the points of the intended invasion, ordering him to evacuate the city immediately or otherwise he will be attacked.

The Chinese have decided to ignore the threat.

Troop Movements.

[THROUGH REUTERS' AGENCY.]

PEIPING, Feb. 18. Japanese troop movements are continuing in the direction of Jehol where the situation has become extremely grave, according to Chinese reports received here.

It is stated that another brigade has arrived in Chinchow from the direction of Mukden, while yesterday one thousand Japanese troops passed through Tachien on route to Tientsin to reinforce the Sixth Division there.

Japanese sources here report that yesterday evening the Committee of the Peiping Japanese Residents Association suddenly convened a meeting to consider the situation and decided to get prepared for emergency.

A "Moral Sentence."

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18. The New York Times states that the British Charge d'Affaires discussed the Committee of Nineteen's report with the Assistant Secretary for Foreign Affairs, here. The nature of the conversation was not disclosed.

The paper, in an editorial, describes the Report as a "moral sentence" which the League neither desires nor means to enforce against Japan, and which has widened the door of conciliation.

Well Considered Report.

London, Feb. 18. The Times, in an editorial characterises the Committee of Nineteen's Report as temperate, just and well-considered, and one which will stand on record as a deliberate opinion reached by the nations composing the League, on a dispute of major importance.

"If a wholly new situation is created by violent action on the part of either party, it is conceivable that the League Council may have to later reconsider the whole position."

The report recommends a wide autonomy of the sort which obviously intended to reserve to Japan more rights than she enjoys under the old dispensation to which it is not proposed to revert. The Times continues.

COMMITTEE OF 19'S REPORT

NOTABLE TRIUMPH FOR LYTTON REPORT

[REUTERS AND BRITISH WIRELESS.]

Geneva, Feb. 17.

The Committee of Nineteen's Report was issued for publication today and it marks a notable triumph for the Lytton Report.

Practically the whole of the Lytton Report is embodied in the Committee's Report in some form or other.

It opens with the first eight chapters of the Lytton Report, which it describes as a balanced, impartial and detailed statement of the historical background.

Then follows a very complete historical review of events since Sept. 18, 1931, when the Japanese captured Mukden.

Proceeding, it details the League's attempts to curtail the conflict, citing various League resolutions, together with the League Covenant, the Kellogg Pact and the Nine-Power Treaty, upon which its ultimate recommendations are based.

Ten Principles.

The recommendations quote textually the Lytton Report including the ten principles laid down in Chapter Nine. These principles will be the guiding lines for the Negotiation Committee (which, however, is never likely to operate).

The Report throughout emphasises that the sovereignty of Manchuria belongs to China and that it has been infringed by Japan.

It insists upon the rectification of this infringement by the withdrawal of Japanese troops and so on.

While the recommendations do not provide for a mere return to the status quo of September, 1931, they exclude the maintenance and recognition of Manchukuo as incompatible with the fundamental principles of international obligations and lasting peace in the Far East.

No Recognition.

It is added fellow members of the League will continue not to recognise this régime either de jure or de facto.

The Report was prepared in accordance with Article 15, Paragraph 4, of the League Covenant, following the failure of the Committee to effect a settlement by conciliation, under paragraph 3 of the same article. The Report is a lengthy document of some 15,000 words.

The Assembly recommends the evacuation of Japanese troops with the Negotiations Committee charged, as its first object, to organise the evacuation and determine the stages and the time limits thereof.

New Organisation.

It is further recommended that there should be established in Manchuria, within a reasonable time, an organisation under the sovereignty of and compatible with the administrative integrity of China, which would provide a wide measure of autonomy in harmony with local conditions and respect the rights and interests of Japan and any third party.

As has already been reported, the recommendations provide for the Negotiations Committee to be set up after China and Japan have accepted the recommendations, the United States and Russia being invited to participate.

The League Assembly will meet on Tuesday to take note of the failure of conciliation, and on Friday, it will be asked to accept the report and recommendations which it will undoubtedly do.

"If the League Assembly adopts the Report, as it undoubtedly will, the League members will be expected to obtain from any act which might prejudice or delay the carrying out of its recommendations, and to continue not to recognise the present régime either de jure or de facto."

"While it is unnecessary for all the States concerned to tie themselves down to any particular policy for all time, it is most certainly advisable to take the League's report as the starting point and pursue the same policy which will only modify common consent."

Well Considered Report.

London, Feb. 18.

The Times, in an editorial characterises the Committee of Nineteen's Report as temperate, just and well-considered, and one which will stand on record as a deliberate opinion reached by the nations composing the League, on a dispute of major importance.

"If a wholly new situation is created by violent action on the part of either party, it is conceivable that the League Council may have to later reconsider the whole position."

The report recommends a wide autonomy of the sort which obviously intended to reserve to Japan more rights than she enjoys under the old dispensation to which it is not proposed to revert. The Times continues.

LYTTON'S SPEECH TO STUDENTS

INACCURATE IMPRESSION CREATED

[THROUGH REUTERS' AGENCY.]

London, Feb. 17.

The Earl of Lytton's views on the ability of the League to bring pressure upon Japan in the event of a rejection of the Assembly's recommendations were not correctly represented in the summary of his remarks given on Wednesday.

A reference to his remarks to Japanese students in London was made by the Earl in the course of a speech at the Albert Hall, Manchester, to-night.

"I would like to refer," he said, "to the report which appeared in some London papers of some remarks of mine to the Japanese Students' Association."

Inaccurate Report.

"It was a private meeting and no representatives were present. The summary must have been obtained from someone at the dinner."

"Though I have no objection to the publication of the remarks, for I said nothing which I would not say in the hearing of the whole world, yet the manner in which I was reported conveyed an inaccurate impression of what I said."

"I was asked a number of questions to which I replied. My replies were pieced together so as to give the idea of a connected statement, but the questions to which I was replying were omitted."

No Complaint.

"I am not complaining that anything was attributed to me which I did not actually say, yet the impression created by the report was that I expressed the opinion that if the Report and recommendations of the League Assembly were ignored, there was no further action which the League could take."

"That is certainly not my opinion. I want to take this opportunity of correcting that impression."

"If either of the parties to the dispute refuses to accept the proffered assistance of the League and acts in a manner contravening the Covenant, then the resources of the League are by no means exhausted."

Other Forms of Pressure.

"But," added the Earl of Lytton, "there are many other forms of pressure which could be exercised, such as an embargo upon the sale of arms, or a refusal of financial assistance to a defaulting State or the withdrawal of diplomatic representatives."

"I am not saying that any of these steps should be taken at present, or at any particular stage, because obviously it must be for the responsible governments to decide the time and the manner of exercising pressure."

"I only want to make it clear that I do not exclude these from the steps which may be taken if and when it becomes necessary."

SETTLEMENT OF ARMS PROBLEM

POWERS NOTE TO AUSTRIA

[THROUGH REUTERS' AGENCY.]

London, Feb. 18.

IT is authoritatively learned that the Note to Austria, sent by the French Government, with adherence to Britain is in no way an ultimatum, but is entirely of a friendly nature.

The English and French Governments have, for some time, been making friendly recommendations to Austria for the settlement of the matter and it is unlikely that in the event of the negotiations being fruitless, that the matter will be referred to the League Council.

The note comments on the large number of rifles and machine guns which have been sent to an Austrian arms factory at Hirtenburg from Italy, for reconditioning, and alleges that the arms are intended for the secret arming of Austrian fascists.

MAIL NEWS FROM CHINA

ULTIMATUM TO CABLE COMPANIES; EXECUTION OF JOURNALIST

[THROUGH REUTERS' AGENCY.]

Chinkiang, Feb. 13.—It is reported that the Kiangsu Provincial Government is contemplating the development of Loyao and Hsukow, on the northern Kiangsu coast, as commercial area. It is anticipated that these two places will gain in commercial importance with the completion of the eastern extension of the Lung-Hai Railway.

"Construction of the extension line has been completed as far as Hsukow. The next task in the boring of a tunnel under Sunksan (Hill) between Hsukow and Loyao on the coast. The latter town is the projected site of the Haichow Harbour.—Kuo Min.

"Ultimatum" by Ministry of Communications.

Nanking, Feb. 14.—It is reported that a virtual "ultimatum" has been delivered by the Ministry of Communications to the Great Northern, Eastern Extension and Commercial Pacific cable companies in connection with the question of revision of their cable agreements.

In a dispatch to the three cable companies, the Ministry insists that new agreements be immediately negotiated and concluded to replace those which had already expired in 1930. It is understood that the Ministry demands a satisfactory reply within a certain time, failing which the Ministry threatens to take "such effective measures as it may deem necessary."

It is understood that despite protracted negotiations two years ago, no new agreements were concluded to replace those which expired in 1930. Moreover, it is pointed out that the three cable companies have failed to apply to the Ministry for the necessary licence for the landing of their cables in Chinese territory.

It is understood that besides urging the immediate negotiation of new agreements, the Ministry has also called upon the cable companies to apply for the prescribed licences without delay.—Kuo Min.

Helping Palace Art Treasures.

Nanking, Feb. 13.—Kaifeng and Loyang in Honan province, cradle of ancient Chinese civilisation, have been chosen by the Central Political Council as places for the temporary storage of the art treasures of the Peiping Palace Museum.

According to an official announcement made yesterday, the Council adopted at its 343rd meeting, recently a resolution to the effect that the curious and ancient manuscripts, which have been removed from the Peiping Imperial Palace, should be sent to Loyang or Kaifeng for temporary preservation.

It is further announced that in pursuance of this resolution, the Executive Yuan has telegraphed to General Li, Chairman of the Honan Provincial Government, instructing him to choose suitable buildings for the safe-keeping of these relics.

The first lot of the Museum treasures, consisting of 2,000 cases, which has already arrived at Pukow from Peiping, will be removed immediately to Honan in accordance with the above-mentioned resolution of the Central Political Council.—Kuo Min.

Shanghai Press Association.

Shanghai, Feb. 13.—The Greater Shanghai Press Association has joined in the nation-wide protest against the alleged unlawful execution of the Chinkiang newspaper editor, Mr. Liu Yu-sheng, by General Ku (Chu Tung, Chairman of the Kiangsu Provincial Government).

In identical petitions to the Central Executive Committee and the National Government, the Association urges the dismissal and punishment of General Ku.

The petition charges that General Ku has unlawfully suspended publication of the Chinkiang newspaper in violation of the Press Law; that he has violated the Provisional Constitution through failure to hand over the deceased to the competent court for trial within 24 hours of his arrest; and, finally, that he ordered execution of the man in defiance of law and the orders of the Government.

The petition also dwells at length upon the articles in the literary supplement of the Kiang Sheng Pao which are alleged to be inflammatory and which formed apparently the sole basis for the conviction of the editor. It claims that the extract quoted by General Ku in his recent petition to the Executive Yuan replying to the impeachment charges represents a distorted

WEEK-END SPORTING ACTIVITIES

DAY OF SENSATIONS AT HAPPY VALLEY

DIANA BAY BEATEN BY SADKO: COO COO BAY MANY LENGTHS BEHIND COSSACK'S BEAUTY

CLARK WINS BOTH SUBSCRIPTION GRIFFINS EVENT WITH THE GOAT AND SWALE

(BY "MORNING DEW")

THOSE WHO HAVE FOLLOWED LOCAL RACING FOR SOME YEARS WILL LONG REMEMBER THE FIRST DAY OF THE 1933 MEETING AS ONE OF THE MOST SENSATIONAL EVER SEEN ON THE HONG KONG COURSE. FROM START TO FINISH THE SURPRISING ELEMENT PREDOMINATED, AND IT LOOKS VERY MUCH AS IF THERE ARE STILL QUITE A NUMBER OF UPSETS IN STORE DURING THE REST OF THE MEETING.

Early on Saturday morning, it became known that Mr. Pearce's King Salmon, favourite for the Valley Stakes could not start because of a sudden attack of colic. Then, in the Maiden Stakes, Coo Coo Bay, carrying the bulk of the betting, went under, and before the lunch interval there was one more eventful occurrence, Portia, the favourite for the Sydney Maidens disappointing her backers. In the afternoon things went much as expected until the last race, when the biggest sensation of the day occurred. Diana Bay, unbeaten champion of the Hong Kong track for three years, suffered her first defeat, by Sadko.

UNREASONABLE PUBLIC LEARNS A LESSON!

In one sense it was not a bad thing for local racing to see Coo Coo Bay defeated. The public expected this to be a wonder pony, a pony absolutely unbeatable. Out of the 1,675 tickets put on the "pari" no less than 1,484 were on Coo Coo Bay. Even assuming for a moment that Coo Coo Bay was all that was made out who was certainly not worth 50-1 on! Had she won, the dividend would have been $5.10 for a win. What untried griffin is worth these odds! Practically the same thing occurred in the last race. The public were willing to take 10 cents for their $1 on the unbeaten champion, and while there was plenty of justification for backing Diana Bay 50-1 against the field!

The Goat Wins.
Coming now to the racing itself. In the Wong Nei Chong Stakes the favourite, won easily, thanks to a bit of good handling by Clark. Taking advantage of a good start, Jack O'Lantern led most of the way and would have sprung a surprise too, had Clark not come through at the distance post with The Goat to win just as he liked. There was a very good tussle for third place and Gold Box just managed to get there ahead of Black Rock. There were twenty-one starters in the first race.

Favourite Falls.
In the Old Course Plate over 3 mile and a quarter Blue Star was made a hot favourite, and the Daily Press selection, Champagne

Bay was second in demand, but carried only one-third the tickets on Blue Star. Champagne Bay, beautifully handled by Mr. Hill won the race to pay $23. Li on Blue Star was content to ride behind Pride of Tsingtao and Daylight Eve, both of which set out to make the pace. Champagne Bay hung on the heels of Blue Star but when the latter failed to shift up rounding the Village, Hill sent up his mount and drew level with them in the straight, winning ultimately by three lengths.

The First Big Upset.

In the Maiden Stakes, as predicted, several sprinters faced the starter and it was surprising to see what a red-hot favourite was made of Coo Coo Bay. There were twelve starters in the race. When the gate went up, Mignonette shot out as if discharged by a catapult. Ip Kui Ying who was riding established a very long lead after the first three furlongs. Meanwhile Cossack's Beauty and Coo Coo Bay both had to struggle against the ground they lost at the start. Heard got Cossack's Beauty going after the first furlong and the pony worked off the gap between himself and Mignonette slowly but steadily, but Coo Coo Bay could not be got going until the first quarter mile was over and when the pony began to move there was too big a task ahead of her. However Hill managed to catch up Mignonette in the straight and finished second, many lengths behind Cossack's Beauty.

Dead Heat.

The two best fancied ponies for the Cosmopolitan Plate dead-heated for first place. Banjolins showed plenty of pace all the way round and lay handsomely close to the leaders until the straight when Mr. Roza asked the pony for an effort and received immediately response, but at the same time Li on Valley Hall, got going on the outside and after a terrific duel the two ponies flashed past the winning post together. The judges were unable to separate the two, and awarded a dead-heat. Amoy was a good third.

Another Hot Favourite Falls.

Portia was very heavily backed in the Sydney Maidens and had she won would have paid less than even. As it was the favourite was left at the start and did not get a move on until the field was well away and she finished last.

Night Star ridden by Li won the race easily, coming home five lengths in front of City of Brisbane, with The Raincloud third, three quarters of a length behind. Nguk and Rosy Morn were both unplaced, but the former made a good show over the first half mile. With the exception of Portia the rest of the field was very evenly backed and twelve of them would have paid over 10-1 for a win.

Old Stalwart Wins.

Sitting Bull entered his sixth racing year on Saturday and appears as strong as ever. Starting in the Footchou Cup, the pony carried half the betting and won by a length and a half after a very interesting race in which Frost displayed great riding skill to wrest the honours in the straight from Gay Crusader. King's Justice was third and powerful King fourth, about a furlong behind.

Another Favourite Out of It.

Black Volvix was made a favourite for the Valley in the absence of King Salmon but the pony finished among the also rans after being jammed out at the start. The field was let off evenly but the rush for position was terrific and Black Volvix was squeezed back. Iron Grey started a second time, after failing in the Wong Nei Chong Stakes and led all the way until the straight was reached, when Swale and Hay Tor passed the leader finished in that order. Flying Boy just got into third place.

Trentbridge's Exercise.

Trentbridge went for an exercise gallop in the Trial Plate where he was opposed to a field of six. The opposition were not even "B" Class ponies, in my opinion. As a result Needa just sent the pony out early on and ran his own race. The rest of the field, many lengths behind, fought the issue out between themselves and Spotted Butterfly and Solar Star finished second and third, respectively. If anyone had said a week ago that Spotted Butterfly would be placed second in the Trial Plate and would only pay $5.90 for a place, he would have been recommended for the Lunatic Asylum, but so poor was the field that opposed Trentbridge on Saturday that, strange though it may seem, such a thing did happen!

Another Dead Heat.

In the China Stakes over five furlongs Cyclamen Bay commanded most of the betting, but the pony did not have things all his own way in spite of the able services of Mr. Frost. Hotman came along with a big rush in the straight and after a grueling struggle in which he disputed every inch of ground, dead-heated with the favourite. Bag and Baggie was third, two lengths behind.

Frost Wins Again.

Frost won the next race, the Woolfara Plate over six furlongs, with The Giraffe. The field lined up in a perfectly straight line behind the gate but The Giraffe was the first to spring out and led all the way home. Friar Luck put up a surprisingly good performance to finish second and had the pony anything like the start The Giraffe had, might have won. Evening Star was third.

Hopital Stakes.

Some very bad riding was seen in this race and one pony at least was seen to run all the way on the outside of the course before petering out in the straight. Brechin won this event by a short head from Jangle Jim (a rank outsider) with Tenorio third. Brechin stayed in the middle of the field and was not asked for an effort until the first half mile was over when Clark brought him out and he came through in the straight to win, but not without a terrific struggle with Jangle Jim. Tenorio was a good third.

How Diana Bay Lost.

In the last race Diana Bay monopolised the betting. The opposition consisted of King's Bounty, Don, Dee, Sadko and Gold Mine. With her huge stride, Diana Bay kept up with King's Bounty over the first six furlongs and then coming into the straight drew away by some lengths when Hill dropped her into a steady canter. Meanwhile Don and Sadko, having been within striking distance of the leaders began to make up ground on reaching the straight and Needa drove Sadko beautifully to make the pony do a wonderful last quarter. From the grand stands it seemed that before Hill realised that there was any real challenge being offered, Sadko had passed Diana Bay and had won! The challenge was absolutely unexpected and the spectators were dumbfounded when they saw it, but they gave Needa a terrific ovation for his effort when Sadko was led in by his popular owner, Mr. A. M. L. Soares.

ABDULLA AT THE RACES

For the races, Angelina
Bought a silken dress of green,
Wore it with a dashing air
Of all the "Lovelies" she most fair.
Edwin, feeling very proud,
Placed their bets and laughed aloud.

But the pony that he chose
Frisked her tail and blew her nose,
Said she did not care to run,
Round the Valley in the sun,
Angelina tossed her head,
"You're a help" was all she said.

Edwin offered tea, champagne,
Cakes and chocolates, all in vain.
Timidly again he spoke—
"Darling would you like a smoke?"
ABDULLA'S magic wave it's spell,
Next race they won; and all was well!

Satisfaction comes to all who smoke
Abdulla Imperial.

THESE A NEW COMMAND IN THE WORLD SMASHING OF THE LIFE, THE MORALS, THE VERY LOVE OF MILLIONS, DOES IT THREATEN YOU?

"THE GOOD COMPANIONS"

FILM NEARING COMPLETION

The climax in production by Gainsborough Pictures of the film having been reached with the fire in the Galford Theatre, Victor Saville has now turned his attention to shorter scenes including shots at Rawsley Junction. The picture has now well on the way to completion and the delays caused by the change in the part of Jess Oakroyd have been made up.

These scenes at Rawsley Junction were shot in Studio No. 2 which is now read for use owing to the rapid progress that has been made recently in completing the building.

Max Miller, "The Cheeky Chap," gives an inimitable few minutes as the star traveller of a music publishing firm who comes to negotiate with Inigo Jollipant for the purchase of the songs he has composed for the "Good Companions." It was not easy for the on-looker to keep the silence essential during recording while Max Miller was playing his part.

The task undertaken in the making of this film can be judged from the fact that up to the present no fewer than 72 sets have been used.

"SOLDIERS OF THE KING"

Leslie Sarony and Arty Ash, both newcomers to the screen, have been added to the cast of "Soldiers of the King," a Gainsborough Picture as has also David Devine the expert manipulator of lighted cigarettes.

Shooting has been in progress, of the New Year celebrations at a flat belonging to the Marvellous Troupe. (Cecily Courtneidge and Edward Taveret Horton arrive in a mud-bespattered condition, in the make-up for which no half-measures were used.

In a few days the company will go to the Princes Theatre for the filming of a performance of the Marvellous Troupe.

"BRITANNIA OF BILLINGS-GATE"

Preparations are nearing completion for the production by Gainsborough Pictures of "Britannia of Billingsgate," starring Violet Loraine "Loose Nuts" with the Palladium Crazy Week cast; "The War of the World," the scenario for which is being prepared by Ivor Montagu and Frank Wells.

Leslie Henson will appear in a film version of "It's a Boy." Forthcoming productions also include the following: "Hey Honny," J. B. Priestley's first scenario prepared directly for the screen, "The Ghoul" and "Bargain Basement."

wears some lovely clothes with charm and dignity.
Ellis Jeffries, Edmond Breon and Jeanne Stuart are in the cast, and they all enter with zest into the spirit of the picture.

TOM (and TONY) MIX

Tom Walls comes into his own in "Leap Year," the new British and Dominion's production which will be showing at the Central Theatre on Wednesday.

Tom Walls plays the leading role and also directed, and he gives us something entirely different in the way of sophisticated comedy with sparkle and polish. I am informed that he absolutely dominates every scene, and his performance in the role of "ladies man" gives him every opportunity to put over his own whimsical charm and subtle, scintillating wit. Anne Grey plays opposite Tom Walls, and this British actress has been magnificently photographed and (Continued on next column.)
